ANONYMOUS DRAWINGS 2022

Opening reception: June 17, 2022

Exhibition: June 18 - August 31, 2022

GALERIE IM KÖRNERPARK

How are our judgements about art affected by our knowledge of the artist's name and background? How is the value of a drawing determined?

Where is the border between art and non-art?

ANONYMOUS DRAWINGS 2022 at Galerie im Körnerpark features 500 drawings by 500 anonymous international artists presented with no mention of authorship or title and offered for sale at a symbolic price of 250€. The identity of the artist is revealed only after the work is sold: Sold drawings will be taken right off the wall and the empty space left behind will be marked with the artist's full name and place of origin. The given unit sales price should not be seen as a real market price, but as a conceptual place holder for any conceivable amount of money in the art market.

The exhibition is preceded by an international open online-call for submissions: There are no guidelines specifying content; the only requirement is that the drawings are no bigger than A3. Age, biography or gender will not be requested to be disclosed and do not play any role in the final selection of works. The selection will be made on the basis of anonymized image files.

ANONYMOUS DRAWINGS is conceptual art and exhibition project all in one: Each and every artist becomes part of a collective work of art where hierarchies are entirely absent.

Idea and realization: Anke Becker
